

NYSVARA – Pulse Check 2012 Educational Conference and Trade Show

Join the NYSVARA Board, members and EMS providers from throughout New York October 11th – 14th at the Crowne Plaza in Suffern, New York The 2012 Pulse Check Educational Conference & Trade Show registrations are now open, for providers and vendors. Register today at: <http://www.nysvara.org>

REGISTRATION: Conference fees and payment policies are detailed on the conference portion of our Web site.

Please read the information carefully before registering. Register and pay early to lock in the best rates for what is already one of the most affordable EMS education experiences.

LODGING/MEALS: Registration fees do not include lodging or meals.

Conference attendees are strongly encouraged to stay at the host facility, Crowne Plaza, Suffern, in order to gain the most from the conference experience. On site meal plans are available. However, many other nearby facilities (lodging and meals) are available.

VENDORS: A Complete Vendor package is available on our website at:

<http://www.nysvara.org/pulseCheck.html>

More information about the conference schedule, seminars, fees, special awards, scholarships, BLS skills challenge, etc. is available online and will be updated regularly as the conference approaches.