

If I was EMS King for a Day

Peter I. Dworsky, MPH, EMT-P, CEM
President
International Association of EMS Chiefs

Peter Dworsky is the President of the International Association of EMS Chiefs. In his previous job, he was responsible for Emergency Management and Business Continuity as well as Risk and Safety Management and the Safety Officer for the State EMS Task Force. He has been worked as a paramedic in NYC and the Director of EMS and Disaster Preparedness for Saint Barnabas Health Care System.

This highly interactive presentation based on the A.A. Milne poem “If I Were King” which is about a child dreaming of all the things he would do if he were the king and how He would run the world differently than other kings by focusing on enjoyment. So for 30 minutes we will discuss whimsical ways to make EMS better.

Presentation Outline:

This highly interactive presentation based on the A.A. Milne poem “If I Were King” which is about a child dreaming of all the things he would do if he were the king and how He would run the world differently than other kings by focusing on enjoyment. So for 30 minutes we will discuss whimsical ways to make EMS better.

Objective 1: Discuss what would make EMS more enjoyable and create recommendations to achieve this

Objective 2: Using group think, catalog the issues in EMS

Objective 3: Discuss the viability of the EMS Agenda 2050
